If you can take them away that would be great! Otherwise perfect game This game is great and fun, but after almost every score there is an add. I scored watched an ad, then pressed play again so that I could play another match and got another add straight after that. I had a good mood playing the game, but when I got the ad it sort of changed the good mood into being irritated. It's ok if there is an add or two each match, but not every score. Please read this and consider it. Maybe I will give another two stars. To start, what happened to the original? This app isn't even worthy of the title of a "knock-off". The graphics are terrible, there isn't an option for two buttons and the game mechanics are just plain bad. And seriously what the heck happened that made someone decide that ads every single round is okay? And also, "Like us on Facebook" to unlock this guy or "Rate us" to unlock this background. It's awful. Who actually decided this would be a good idea? Want my review? Don't waste your time. It's a piece of trash. DOWNLOAD Soccer Physics 2D - insanely funny game in which you will be involved in a football match. Forget everything you knew previously about football, our match is played only by 2 players in each team, but the funny is not it, and the fact that the players were numb and instead of the usual strong bumps are only able to bounce slightly, and if you're lucky you can lift the leg. At first glance, the game Soccer Physics 2D for Android can seem plain, and not interesting, but this is only the beginning, having tasted all the charm of the game you will not be able to break away from the gameplay, the Whole match is recorded and you will be able to see all the "replays" of your goals, and see other people. Unfortunately, the game is scant on modes games, here they are 3: play against the computer, game for two players on one phone and the last mode is "computer vs computer" in which you just you can laugh at the funny player movement. If your players both go in the gate, their sizes immediately increase to two, which will give more chances to score your opponent.
